

Bringing out a Woman's Beauty and Becoming the Wind Beneath Her Wings

God's call to lead our _____.

We need a change of _____, a change of _____ and a change of _____.

1. Change of Agenda: A steward-leader loves his wife _____.
2. Change of Purpose: A steward-leader helps his wife change for her sake and _____.
3. Change of Focus: A steward-leader avoids using his wife as his source of _____.

Becoming your wife's _____.

1. Help your wife find time to _____.
2. Help your wife dream of what she _____.
3. Start thinking in terms of "_____ " ... not her life and my life.

Discussion Questions:

1. How is God's call to treat and elevate our wives, different from the world?
2. What has your wife given up for you and what have you given up for her?
3. Have you ever attempted to change your wife or a significant woman in your life for your benefit? How so? How is that different from assisting her to change for her benefit and God's glory? What would be an example of how you can do that?
4. How might you be drawing your source of significance from your wife instead of being God's instrument to encourage her significance?
5. What dreams does our wife have that God has given her? How might you help her to dream and move to fulfill that dream? What is one step you can make to get on the same page and develop a joint dream with your wife and not expecting her to always support your dream?
6. Based on God's Word and your discussion, what is one application step you will make this week?
