

Gracepath: Biblical Womanhood Fall 2015/Spring 2016 Session 19

25 WAYS TO BE A LOVING HELPER

1)	A Loving Helper sees herself as the	on her husband's
2)	A Loving Helper is a of her husband.
3)	A Loving Helper her husband.
4)	A Loving Helper her husband in		_
5)	A Loving Helper her husband in
6)	A Loving Helper her husband
7)	A Loving Helper provides to her husband by sharing his		sharing his
8)	A Loving Helper with her husl	band.
9)	A Loving Helperto	Helper to her
10)	A Loving Helper encourages her husband to
11)	A Loving Helper assumes of her husband's
12)	A Loving Helper	oving Helper for her husband r
13)	A Loving Helper her husband.
14)	A Loving Helper interacts with her husband as	rather than	or
15)	A Loving Helper is	to her husband.
16)	A Loving Helper her husband		_
17)	A Loving Helper keeps her c	on the home and	at those
18)	A Loving Helper her c	hildren in	with her husband.
19)	A Loving Helper works toward creating
20)	A Loving Helper to live
21)	A Loving Helper recognizes her husband as
-

- A Loving Helper ______ to her husband's ______.
 A Loving Helper focuses on ______ rather than on ______.
 A Loving Helper depends ______ for her ______.
- 25) A Loving Helper _____ for her husband frequently.

Discussion Questions:

- 1. From our Reflection Assignment last week, how did you process your sexuality last week with God? How does His offer of forgiveness, redemption, and empowerment help you in this process?
- 2. What difference does it make to think of being "a loving helper" instead of "a dutiful wife?"
- 3. Look back over the 25 Ways to be a Loving Helper:
 - a. Name one you like!
 - b. Name one that surprised you.
 - c. Name one that's "difficult."
 - d. Name one that you think your husband would appreciate.
 - e. Name one you will try this week.