

GOOD FRIDAY

AT HILL COUNTRY

“He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by His wounds you have been healed.” 1 Peter 2:24

On Good Friday, we remember the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross. It is a time of somber reflection where we consider the tremendous cost of our sin, and the price that He paid with His blood on the cross. In the space between His death and resurrection, we invite you to join us in this solemn experience.

We encourage you to walk through both the North Auditorium and Worship Center at your own pace to experience...

WORSHIP—There will be live music in the Worship Center throughout the entire experience. Take time to meet with God and respond to Him through both music and singing.

PRAY—There will be guided prayer in the Worship Center as well as prayer prompts in the North Auditorium, offering you a time to connect with God.

REMEMBER—Communion elements are available in the Worship Center for you to take as you worship and pray. On the back of this card, you will find a guide to lead you through communion.

REFLECT—Reflect during an interactive activity located in the North Auditorium, as you revisit the story of Jesus’ journey to the cross. Take time to truly consider how His sacrifice impacts both your story and others.

Our hope is that through these experiences, you will encounter Jesus.

COMMUNION

*“For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until He comes.”
1 Corinthians 11:26*

One of the most significant ways that we remember what Jesus did for us on the cross is through observing communion together as a church body.

We eat the bread and remember that Jesus’ body was broken for us. Because of His great love, He took the punishment that our sin required. We drink the cup and remember that His blood was shed as the full payment for the debt that we owed. We can receive forgiveness and eternal life because of what Jesus has done.

On Sundays, we gather and receive the elements together as a corporate expression of worship, but today we offer you the opportunity to take communion on your own or with your family and friends at your own pace. So when you are ready...

BEGIN WITH PRAYER—Take a moment to confess your sin and acknowledge your need for Jesus.

EAT THE BREAD—The Lord Jesus on the night He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, “This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me.”
(1 Corinthians 11:23-24)

DRINK THE CUP—In the same way, after supper He took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.”
(1 Corinthians 11:25)

END WITH THANKSGIVING—Thank the Lord through prayer and worship for what he has done for you.
