REFLECTION Question

In the past, what have you used to gauge your thinking? Do you rely on your feelings, intuition, the opinions of others…? How do you usually know when you are wrong in your thinking (or deceived)? Do you have any "red flags" that let you know you are getting off track?

Passage to Ponder this week... Proverbs 14:12