MY APPLICATION

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. As you reflect on the book of Job, what did God reveal to Job that restored Job's confidence? Have you ever lost confidence in God while you were suffering?
2. As you think about the story, what happened to Job's community of friends that made his suffering worse? (See Job 42:7-11) What was Job's part to restore this community?
3. Have you ever been let down or maybe you let down someone in suffering? How could you help your community be stronger together?
4. As you see the end of the story, why didn't God give Job 20 children since he doubled everything else? (See Job 42:10-17) What does this tell us about God's restoration?
