

Discovering Your Purpose Tool: Discover Hill Country Impacting Others

Instructions:

Fill out each section of the Your Unique Blend for Maximum Impact worksheet using the instructions below.

Spiritual Gifts

When you put your faith in Christ, God gives you spiritual gifts. Refer to the Spiritual Gifts Assessment that you completed in Week 2. Fill in the Keywords section of the Your Unique Blend for Maximum Impact worksheet with the results of your assessment.

Wiring:

Personality/Behavioral Style

Your wiring includes your personality and behavioral style. What preferences do you have about the way things are done? Consider the list below, and think about the option in each that best describes you:

People focus v. task focus?

Structure v. loose structure?

Details v. big picture?

Support v. lead?

You may have taken other personality or strengths tests in the past. Consider those results, and write down a few key words in the Wiring section.

Abilities/Talents

Your abilities and talents are your natural or learned skill aptitudes, such as creativity, athleticism, technical acumen, etc. Consider what others have noticed you doing well, and reflect on activities you find fulfilling. Add these to list in the Wiring section.

Passions

Use the Identifying My Passions page (page 4 of packet) to help you complete this section. Fill in the Passions section with your results.

Current Life Circumstances

Your present circumstances impact where and how you can serve. Fill in the Location, Family, Work, and Resources lines of the Current Life Circumstances section. Resources include items such as your home, a pool, your vehicle, etc. – things that you could use to serve others.

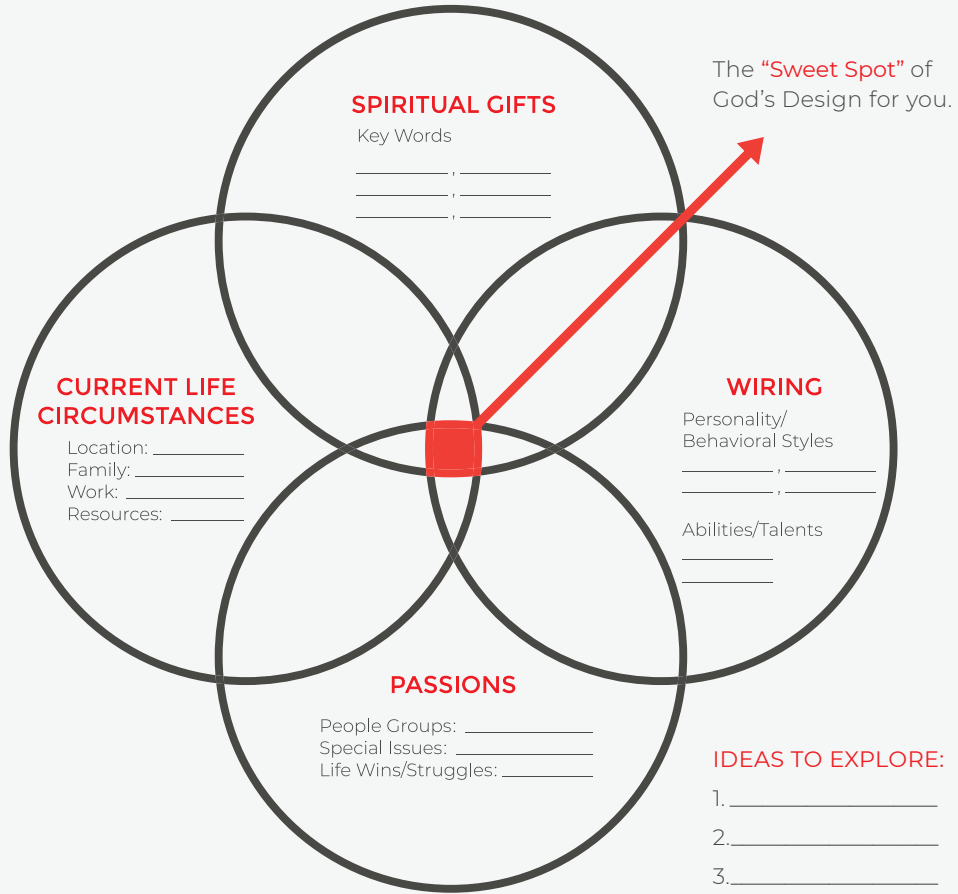

Ideas to Explore

The intersection of your spiritual gifts, current life circumstances, wiring, and passions form the “sweet spot” of God’s design for you. As you think about your sweet spot, consider service opportunities that might check some or all of these boxes. Such opportunities could include serving in ministry at your local church or similar organizations. But don’t wait for the perfect opportunity to come along. Listen to the Holy Spirit, and be ready to respond to opportunities to serve.
