

Part 3: Relational Questions

1. How do I pass on faith to my kids? How do I engage my teen/adult child who's rejecting faith?
2. How can I provide guidance to people suffering from depression, anxiety, or mental health issues?
3. How can I share my faith with those around me, especially in the workplace?

Download "Relational Questions" by Jim Botts (04/21/24) free, or share it via email, Facebook, or Twitter at hcbc.com/media.

MY APPLICATION

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family and friends.

1. The root of the word “question” is “quest.” Discuss why Jesus used so many questions with others. How has God used your questions to move you along on your faith journey?
2. Deuteronomy 6:4-9 is God’s blueprint to form faith in the family. Discuss how you might implement the 3Rs of a God-centered home in your family.
3. A common myth says Christians aren’t supposed to experience mental health issues. How would you address this myth with someone who believes it?
4. The truest reflection of our faith is seen by what we’re doing on Monday morning 11am. From Colossians 3:23-24, how can our weekday vocation become more meaningful and impactful?
5. Of the 3Qs from this weekend, which one resonated with you most? What one step is God nudging you to take in that area? Who will you tell about that step?

Memory Verse

But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect.

1 Peter 3:15 NIV