

Unexpected Kindness Ruth 3

God works in spite of our plans. (3:1-5)

God's kindness is greater still. (3:6-13)

We all need a Kinsman-Redeemer. (3:14-18)

Timeless truth

God's kindness is undeserved, yet desperately needed and offers redemption for you through Jesus, your Kinsman-Redeemer.

Discussion Questions:

Share about a time when you have seen God work in, through or in spite of your plans.

What do Naomi's words suggest about her attitude towards Ruth, towards Boaz and towards God in 3:1-5?

When you consider God's kindness, how have you seen His kindness being "greater still" in your life?

What are the similarities and differences between Boaz and Jesus in 3:6-18?

How does remembering that God's kindness to you is "undeserved, yet desperately needed" change the way you live your daily life?

Have you said yes to Jesus as your Kinsman Redeemer? If so, how are you seeking to follow His direction in your life? If not, what questions, doubts or hesitations do you have?