

Friends: Risks and Rewards

Discussion Questions:

1. Why might it be difficult for men to establish and maintain deep and true friendships?
2. Why would God desire for us to have deep and true friendship with other men?
3. Describe a friendship you have or have had that was a deep and true friendship. What were some of the things about it that made it great?
4. Have you ever had a friend really challenge you on something? How did it feel in the moment? How did you respond?
5. Do you have a or a few true, deep friendships? What are some steps you can take today to begin one or strengthen one?