Various

Five specific things you can do to plant gospel seeds among your oikos are:

1. Pray specifically for people in your oikos who do not know Christ.
2. Welcome new people in your neighborhood.
3. Pay attention to the foreigner among you.
4. Plant gospel seeds through the way you live your life.
5. Plant gospel seeds through the words you speak.

MY APPLICATION

The following questions this week reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family and friends.

1. What does it mean for the gospel to first be planted in your own life, and why is this your strongest motivation for planting gospel seeds in the lives of others?
2. Read Mark 5:19-20. What is significant about this man's request of Jesus and how Jesus responds to him?
3. What is the biblical concept of oikos, and who specifically is your oikos?
4. Out of the five practical suggestions to plant gospel seeds among your oikos, what is one or two you want to be intentional to do?

Memory Verse

“Go home to your friends and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you. And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him, and everyone marveled.”

Mark 5:19b-20 (ESV)
