

The Future Body

Our present bodies are wearing down; however, our future bodies will be glorious. And our future body point to the fullness of our redemption and is meant to spur our present action. As a result, is there a labor God is calling you to?

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 15:35-58 - “Although our present bodies are wearing down, our future bodies will be glorious and eternal.”

Sermon Points:

1. The future body will be glorious. (v35-44a)
2. The future body points to the fullness of our redemption. (v45-57)
3. The future body is meant to spur our present action. (v58)

Group Opener: Growing up, we use to hear many different ideas about what heaven would be like. What are some of the more interesting ideas of heaven you’ve heard?

Discussion Questions:

1. Read 1 Corinthians 15:35-44. What stands out to you from this passage? As you read through the contrast between our present body and our future body, what are you most looking forward to?
2. Read 1 Corinthians 15:58. From the passage, can you articulate in your own words why our “labor in the Lord is not in vain?” What is your current “labor in the Lord?”
3. As a result of the message, is there a labor God is calling you to engage in? Pray for one another to labor in the ways God is leading us to or are already engaged in.
