

God and Money

Discussion Questions:

1. Of the four (4) options below, where do you feel you stand?
  - Self-Absorbed Owner – I have full authority over my stuff.
  - Obligated Owner – I have full authority over my stuff, but I feel obligated to give to something I care about.
  - Obedient Owner – I have full authority over my stuff but will obey what God says I should do with my stuff.
  - Love-Inspired Steward – I have given God total authority over His stuff.
2. How have you lied to others or yourself about your financial situation in the past?
3. How involved is God in your money today?
4. Of the four (4) roles of a biblical steward discussed (generous giver, cautious debtor, prudent budgeter and spender, wise saver) which ones are you best at? Which ones do you need to grow in?
5. Read Matthew 25:14-30. What does this parable teach us about how we manage the gifts God has given us?
