MY APPLICATION

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. The message taught that Jesus presents Himself as light. Do you enjoy the metaphors the Bible uses, or is it easier for something to be taught with more detail? When Jesus compares Himself to light what is the first connection that your brain makes?
2. John's gospel uses light in a number of places. Read these verses together and talk through any patterns OR contrasts you see in how light is used.
 - a. John 1:4-9
 - b. John 3:18-21
 - c. John 8:12 & 9:1-5
 - d. John 12:35-36
3. A landing idea this week was that the New Testament calls us light. It does not ask us to be light; it asserts that we are light. Is that a challenge to you, or is it encouraging?

Memory Verse

While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light.
