

Title: God's Charge to Men

Passage: 2 Tim 4:1-8

1. As we Go, Preach the Word (1-4)
2. As we Go, Fulfill your Ministry (5)
3. As we Go, Fight to Finish Well (6-8)

Discussion Questions:

1. Read 2 Tim 4:1-4 Where has God called you to “preach the word?” Does it help to see that this isn’t only talking about Sunday morning preaching? What keeps us from preaching where God has placed us?
2. Read 2 Tim 4:5 What ministry has God called you to give your life to? How did you know that was it? If you aren’t sure, what are some options you think it might be?
3. Read 2 Tim 4:6-8 Why do you think Paul has been able to finish his ministry? What is your hope as you look down the road to the end of your life? What would you love to see God do through you?
4. This is a launching day. This is a day to commit to “go!” Share the commitment you are making today and pray for one another to see it through.

Eric Creekmore

Eric currently serves as the Church Planting Director for Hill Country Bible Church Austin where he oversees planter identification, development, and church launch. He also leads the Saturate Austin Institute which is the church's in-house equipping environment for developing people biblically, theologically, and practically to join God on mission in the city. Eric also serves on the board of the Association of Hill Country Churches, a network of churches in the greater Austin area committed to catalyzing a movement of healthy reproducing churches that saturate our city with Gospel conversations. Prior to his time at Hill Country, he planted and pastored a church in the Dallas area for seven years.

Before entering vocational ministry Eric served twelve years on active duty as a fighter pilot in the US Marine Corps deploying twice for combat. He's a graduate of Dallas Theological Seminary. Eric is married to Heather, and they have four children; Zach, Kaitlyn, Trevor, and Drew.
