

Making God's Truth Attractive

1. What are some personal observations and experiences that help illustrate the importance of developing “respectability”?
2. What are the implications of our Appearance / House We Live In / Speech We Use, in our, and more importantly God's, respectability?
3. What level of respectability are you bringing to God in your family, work and politics?
4. What can we do to become consistent Christians in all areas of our lives? If we have lost respect, how can we regain it?
