Discussion Questions

1. What stuck out to you from today's lecture?
2. Let's take a look at the homework. What were your key takeaways?
3. What did you learn when you did the "Discovering Your Purpose Tool" from last week (Spiritual Gift Inventory)?
4. What do you see as your biggest barrier (fear, hardship, potential suffering) to giving your life to sharing the good news/gospel of Jesus?
5. How has the good news of Jesus (perhaps today is the first time you heard it in a way that clicked) transformed your life? How does that motivate you to share the gospel in your circle of influence?
6. As you consider what your calendar, your budget/spending, and your thought life tell you about what you are living for, where do you expend most of your physical, emotional, and mental energy? What could be some next steps to shift to living for the gospel?
7. Have you ever tried to explain the gospel to someone you care about? How was that experience? What is a next step for you to develop confidence in explaining the gospel?
