

God's Unexpected Story Introduction

The Bible is the unexpected story of God's love and pursuit of His people.

God is always the Hero of the story.

Timeless Truth:

God is telling an unexpected story of His love and pursuit of you, and He is the Hero of your story.

Discussion Questions:

Introduce yourself. Tell us about the current part of your story: what you do, who are your people, where you live, what you enjoy.

When you consider the stories of the Bible, what are some unexpected parts of God's love and pursuit of His people?

When you consider that God has been authoring the story of His people throughout the history of the world, what do you find unexpected about that story?

When you consider your own story, your life, what parts have been unexpected?

How have you seen that God is the Hero of your story, even in the unexpected parts?
