

Unexpected Provision Ruth 2

God's provision is often unexpected. (2:1-7)

God's provision is always undeserved. (2:8-13)

God's provision is abundant and full of hope. (2:14-23)

Timeless Truth:

God is our provider, and we can trust him to provide for our every need.

Discussion Questions:

Ruth Chapter 1 ends with Naomi declaring that the Lord has made her empty. Chapter 2 is full of God's provision toward both her and Ruth. As a group, list these many provisions.

Have you experienced God's provision in unexpected ways? If you feel comfortable, please share.

Read Matthew 6:31-34. Why is it so hard to trust Jesus' words here?

We often feel God owes us certain things. How would our perspective on difficult situations change if we recognize God owes us nothing, yet He loves us and provides for us still.
