

Summer IN THE PSALMS

When I Hunger for Awe Psalm 66:1-20

1. God is big enough for _____ .
(v1-7)
2. God is big enough for _____ .
(v8-12)
 - For any trials (v10)
 - For any troubles (v11-12a)
 - For any terrors (v12b)
3. God is big enough for _____ .
(v13-20)

MY APPLICATION

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. More than anything, we need to see God as big in our lives. Fill in the blank: “God, I need you to be big in my _____ right now.” In what ways do you need God to be big for you?
2. The Psalmist made his delight in God complete by expressing praise out loud. How does this simple act encourage you? In what ways does it stretch you?
3. We often relate with God as fair-weather friends. How does worshipping God through trials, troubles, and terrors develop a bigger view of God? How does worship carry us through to abundance?
4. A big vision of God results in a big commitment to God. In what ways has your commitment to God been too casual? What’s one thing you can do to make it more radical?
5. This week’s spiritual practice: Like Psalm 66, create your own list of great things God has done in your life. Praise Him for each one. You get bonus points if you share your list with someone.

Memory Verse

“Bless our God, O peoples; let the sound of His praise be heard.”

Psalm 66:8