

Jacob Cheats Esau Genesis 26:34-28:5

Discussion Questions:

1. Jacob dressed up and pretended to be someone he wasn't in order to get what he wanted. Can you think of example of this playing out in our culture? In our lives?
2. Every character in this story is grasping for something, what does this look like in our lives? (Ex: attention, affection, affirmation, love, security, etc.)
3. God's will prevailed despite Isaac and Rebekah's messed up family. He is and always will be in control. What hope does this offer you in your life?
4. God, in his grace, has already blessed us with everything we need in him. How can believing and applying this truth positively affect our daily lives? Our relationships?
