

Don't Miss Your Calling

Discussion Questions:

1. How do you seek to know God and your relationship to him on a daily basis? How can that help in understanding callings in your life?
2. What are some tensions you feel when you think about "God's calling in your life"?
3. Do you think God is interested in your work? Why or why not?
4. What are some tensions you feel when you think about "God's calling in your life"?
5. How do work and calling go together in your life?
6. Do you know what God's calling in your life is? If so, share what that is and how you came to find it.
7. What are some steps you can take starting today to work towards understanding and/or living out the calling God has in your life?