

To Change the World

Scripture Text: Micah 6:1-8

Have you considered that God's plan to change the world starts with wanting to change each of us? His plan to change the world is to present a new humanity as seen in the lives of the people who are following Jesus. As you move forward in today's world, how can you be a changed life, sharing the love of Jesus.

The Big Idea: God's plan to change the world is to change me.

Sermon Points:

Micah 6:8

He has showed you, O man, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you?

- To act justly
- and to love mercy
- and to walk humbly with your God.

Discussion Question Options:

- What was particularly impactful to you about this message?
- Have the current cultural tensions caused you to be more cautious about saying what you think? Without getting political, please share an example.
- How does fear of open conversation interfere with building trust and common ground?
- As you read Micah 6:1-7, what is the question raised by God (v.1-5), and how does the people's response miss the point (v.6-7)? What are some ways we might be missing God's point today?
- God's plan to change the world is to show the world a new humanity, seen in the lives of people who are following Jesus. Name some people you admire who are making an impact by who they are and what they do.
- Have you taken the challenge to pray Micah 6:8 back to God every day this week? What are you hearing or sensing from God? Don't forget to email Pastor Tim and let him know (timhawks@hcbc.com)
