The Way of Life

Jesus came to show us not only the way back to God, but the way back to others as well. As people who have been reconciled to God, we should pursue reconciliation with people whenever possible.

Discussion Questions:

1. Believing in Jesus can lead to two different mindsets: having a “box of beliefs” or a “way of life.” How would you describe the difference between the two?
 2. What’s your initial response to the suggestion that “... no one comes to the Father except through me” is inclusive rather than exclusive?
 3. In your opinion, what is the ultimate goal of reconciliation? How can we measure its success?
 4. It makes sense that reconciled people should, in turn, be reconcilers. Why do we resist? Why do we hesitate to initiate?
 5. Can you share a personal experience where reconciliation had a significant impact on your life or relationships?
 6. Are you party to a broken or damaged relationship that’s waiting for someone to make the first move? Why not you?
