

MY STORY, MY SONG

Oceans, No Longer Slaves, and I Speak Jesus

Our stories of struggle, loss, and redemption are powerful reminders that God never leaves us alone. Today we'll hear stories of three of our worship leaders: Tang, Mark, and Clarissa.

Discussion Questions:

1. What part of Tann's or Mark and Clarissa's story did you connect with the most, and why?
2. Mark said he found his identity in what he did instead of who he was—have you ever felt that tension? If so, when? Are you still feeling it?
3. Clarissa described how busyness kept her from noticing what was happening. How has distraction caused you to miss something that was happening? What's possibly causing you to be distracted currently?
4. Tan said she was angry with God—but still chose to reach for him. Can you relate to that tension? What does it mean to trust God even when you're disappointed in him?
5. Take a moment to look at some of the the lyrics to the songs highlighted today.

Oceans	No Longer Slaves	I Speak Jesus
So I will call upon Your Name And keep my eyes above the waves When oceans rise My soul will rest in Your embrace For I am Yours and You are mine	From my mother's womb You have chosen me Love has called my name I've been born again to your family Your blood flows through my veins	Your name is power Your name is healing Your name is life Break every stronghold Shine through the shadows Burn like a fire
Spirit lead me where my trust is without borders Let me walk upon the waters Wherever You would call me Take me deeper than my feet could ever wander And my faith will be made stronger In the presence of my Savior	I'm no longer a slave to fear I am a child of God I'm no longer a slave to fear I am a child of God	Shout Jesus from the mountains Jesus in the streets Jesus in the darkness, over every enemy Jesus for my family I speak the holy name of Jesus

6. What lyrics or lines stand out to you the most, and why do you think they resonate with you?
7. What is happening in your life right now that needs to be surrendered to God—even if you're still hurting, grieving, or uncertain?
