

MY STORY, MY SONG

Spirit of God

If you're curious, cautious, or somewhere in between, the Spirit invites you to lean in, let go, and be led.

Discussion Questions:

1. How has your background shaped how you view the Spirit of God—too mystical, too minimal, or somewhere in between?
2. What's something you're curious about when it comes to the Holy Spirit?
3. Take a moment to look at some of the lyrics to Spirit of God:

*We pray for revival
We start on our knees
Spirit of God pour out on us
Whatever it looks like wherever you lead
Spirit of God pour out on us*

*Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom
Where the Spirit of the Lord is, chains will be broken
Where the Spirit of the Lord is, miracles come to pass
Spirit of God pour out on us*

*Where the Spirit of the Lord is, fear has no power
Where the Spirit of the Lord is, breakthrough is coming
Where the Spirit of the Lord is, restoration will happen
Spirit of God pour out on us*

4. What lyrics or lines stand out to you the most, and why do you think they resonate with you?
5. Read Galatians 3:2–3 aloud.

I would like to learn just one thing from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by believing what you heard? Are you so foolish? After beginning by means of the Spirit, are you now trying to finish by means of the flesh?

Have you ever found yourself starting with faith and then slipping into self-effort? What did that look like?

6. How do you know when you're operating in your own effort versus being led by the Spirit?

7. What's an area or circumstance of your life you could say "Help me" to God this week—whatever it looks like, wherever it leads? Is there a situation you need to say, "I can't. You can. Take this?"
