Misfits & Embarrassments

The lineage of Jesus is full people with stories that would make anyone blush, including the likes of King David and Lot's daughters. But in spite of jaw-dropping choices people made, God's purposes marched forward.

Discussion Questions:

1. What's one story from your past that people are surprised to hear about you?
 2. In what way do you tend to manage your "image"?
 3. Can you think of a way God used a messy or unexpected part of your story for something good?
 4. When it comes to being part of God's family or part of his story, have you ever felt like you didn't belong? If so, why?
 5. Are you good at forgiving yourself for things you've done in the past?
 6. When your past failures come to mind, what is one way you can remind yourself that God is not embarrassed by your failures?
