

I Did, I Do, and You Do Too!

We take values like human dignity, compassion, and justice for granted today, but they only feel obvious because the church first introduced them.

Discussion Questions:

1. If everything you learned from and experienced in church was suddenly erased. Would you be better or worse off? Why?
2. Did the suggestion that you live in a “Christianized” culture surprise you? Agree or disagree?
3. Have you visited a part of the world where Christianization is less evident or not evident at all? If so, what differences did you notice?
4. Read John 13:34–35 aloud.

“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”

What does Jesus’s command to love “as I have loved you” reveal about the kind of community the church was meant to be?

5. What’s one habit or rhythm you could add—or return to—that would allow the church’s teaching and relationships to shape you more consistently?