

For God So Loved Gwinnett.

Week Two Discussion Questions

1. What's the last thing you recommended to a friend or a friend recommended to you? (A restaurant, show, vacation spot, etc.)
2. Can you think of a time when an invitation made a difference in your life? Maybe it was an invitation to a class where you met a close friend or an invitation to apply for a job that was pivotal in your career.
3. What comes to mind when you think of inviting someone to church or to faith? Does it feel intimidating, intrusive, or natural?
4. Brooklynn said that an invitation to a relationship with Jesus is as simple as inviting someone to "come and see." Do you agree? Does it feel that simple?
5. How does it feel to know there are people in your circle of influence who may never hear about Jesus unless you tell them?
6. We all have opportunities to invite someone to church. Here are the "Four Nots" to look for when inviting someone to church:
 - Not Going Well
 - Not Prepared for
 - Not in Church
 - Not from HereWhen you think of those four things, who comes to mind?

Application

Who is one person you can pray for this week who needs to know Jesus?
