

WHAT Our WORLD NEEDS NOW

Human-kind-ness

What does human-kind-ness look like, act like, and react like?

Discussion Questions

1. What would you say is the main difference between being nice versus being kind?
2. What type of situation or relationship makes you hesitant to be kind?
3. Think of a time when your kindness was misinterpreted as consent. How did you respond? How do you wish you had responded?
4. Jesus “bent down” (demonstrating grace), then “straightened up” (communicating truth). Which is easier for you? Which is harder?
5. We often have a hard time separating people from what they’ve done. Do you have a relationship that could benefit from you separating the person from what they’ve done? What is a tangible way you could do that?
