

THE LAST RESORT

The first place to go when nothing has worked.

Rise Up

We know desperate times call for desperate measures. But when times are tough, we need to think about our first responses.

Discussion Questions

1. When was the last time you felt desperate? Did you include God in your desperation? How?
 2. Read Mark 5:21–43. What do these interactions with Jesus teach us about how we should approach God?
 3. Is there a time when you wish you had made God your first response rather than your last resort? What happened?
 4. How do these statements resonate with you? Do any of them speak to you personally?
 - God isn't turned off by your desperation.
 - God isn't put off by being your last resort.
 - Desperation deepens your relationship with God.
 5. "God might not change your circumstance, but he will enhance your relationship with him." How do you feel about that statement?
 6. Is there a circumstance you're in the middle of that you need to include God in? What would that look like for you?
-