

Not Coming Down

We set out to build a church where the convinced and the curious could belong—and in a culture quick to divide and demonize, we’re not coming down.

Discussion Questions:

1. When an organization's influence grows, what temptations make it easy to drift from its mission to maintenance?
2. Where have you seen the church—or yourself—accidentally make it harder for someone to approach faith?
3. Who in your world right now feels like “the other side,” and what would it look like for you to move toward them with compassion instead of criticism?
4. Read Nehemiah 6:3: I am doing a great work and I cannot come down.
What do you think it means for our church to “stay on the wall” today?
5. As you think about North Point’s 30-year story, what stands out to you about the kind of impact it’s had on you personally?
6. As North Point looks to the next 30 years, what kind of church do you hope we continue to be known for?
