

Every number has a name,
every name a story,
and every story matters to God.

All About the Numbers

Group Discussion Questions

1. What has been your perception of large churches—ours or others?
2. What's at risk when a church overly prioritizes numbers? What can happen when a church is most concerned with filling a room?
3. Read Acts 2:47. What can we learn from the book of Acts about how numbers were viewed in the early Church?
4. Reed mentioned that in the book of Luke, names are always attached to numbers in the way Luke talked about the early Church. Why does this matter?
5. How can we, as individuals in our church, continue to celebrate growth and remain focused on the personal impact those numbers represent?
