

The Enemy Within

It's easy to believe the greatest enemy of the church comes from outside the church. Unfortunately, the church's greatest threat is right in the middle of it.

Discussion Questions:

1. In your opinion, what is the greatest threat to the church in the United States?
2. What is a "secondary" issue that you struggle to keep from being primary? Why?
3. Do you currently see a group of people as "bad" because they see things differently than you? If so, would you say you have room to grow in terms of your posture toward them?
4. Read John 17:20–21 aloud. What stands out to you? Why would Jesus prioritize the idea of "being one?" Why is disunity such a great enemy?
5. Respond to this quote from Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn: "The line separating good and evil passes... right through every human heart."
6. When you look at the below list, which one of these stand out to you as an opportunity to improve?
 - Pledge loyalty to Jesus over country.
 - Don't allow a secondary issue to become your primary issue.
 - Refuse to demonize anyone for any reason.
