

THE LAST KINGDOM

Fight Like the King

The fight of faith is about becoming more like Jesus, not about defeating enemies.

Discussion Questions:

1. In your opinion, what do Christians appear to be fighting against or fighting for these days? What is the win?
2. If someone watched your daily life, what might they think you are "fighting for"?
3. Read 1 Corinthians 9:19–23. What was Paul's win?

Though I am free and belong to no one, I have made myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible. To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law. To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all people so that by all possible means I might save some. I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

4. What might it cost you to prioritize fighting the "good fight" in the way Paul describes?
 5. How does the following statement land with you or challenge you? The right fight is the fight to be Christlike, regardless.
