

MIRACLES

then and now

In the Zone

While we can't predict when miracles happen, there is a posture we can take that increases the chances of God doing a supernatural work within us.

Discussion Questions:

1. Have you ever resisted what may have been a God nudge? What happened?
  2. Have you ever engaged in an act of sacrificial obedience? What happened?
  3. In what area of your life do you find it hardest to take a posture of obedience and sacrifice?
  4. What opportunity of sacrificial obedience is in front of you currently?
  5. What, if anything, is standing in the way of you living in a posture of surrender? Fear? Doubt? Selfishness?
