

Can I Get A Witness

Week Two - Matt Noblitt - Go and Tell

In Can I Get A Witness Part 2, we will look at a story that many people found hard to believe. It is a story that is marked by two words that have the power to transform your life and those around you. You are invited to come and see and you may just leave with the courage to go and tell.

Discussion Questions

1. Has Jesus ever used an unexpected moment or unusual method to reach you personally and change you?
2. Read John 9:6–7. When Jesus tells the man to “Go wash in the Pool of Siloam,” the command seems pretty simple. The blind man does not question it—he does what Jesus says. Do you sense Jesus instructing you to do something that you are hesitant to obey because you want more clarity?
3. Did you grow up believing that you needed to clean up your act or change your life before receiving the love of Jesus and trusting him?
4. Fill in the blanks about your own experience of Jesus: Before Jesus, I _____, but now _____.
5. Has your understanding of Jesus changed over time? How so?
6. If God has indeed changed you from the inside out, is there now a version of “go and tell” that you feel like he might be calling you to?
