Your Place in the Story

Sometimes if something is too familiar, we forget how significant it is. The parable of the prodigal son is a perfect example. And when we acknowledge where we are in the story, we're positioned to discover where we need to be.

Discussion Questions:

1. When was the last time you lost something valuable? What was it? If you found it, talk about how you felt once you did.
2. Read Luke 15:11–32. What details stand out to you about this parable?
3. Do you know someone who would likely handle this situation like the father in the story did? If so, whom? What makes you say that?
4. Do you identify more with the younger brother or the older brother? Why? Was there a time when you identified more with the other?
5. Look at the three words below. Who in your life needs one of them from you? What do you need to do?

Forgiveness | Reconciliation | Acceptance
