Don't Settle for Christian

Becoming a Christian is easy. It won't cost you anything. But Jesus never invited anyone to become a Christian. He invites us to follow.

Discussion Questions

1. Think of someone who seems "opposite" of you in a number of ways. This could be someone who looks or lives differently from you, or who has wronged you in some way. Imagine doing something to bless or help that person. What barriers arise in your mind?

For the next two questions, consider these two categories of believers:

Christian	Jesus Follower
Believes all people have inherent value, including strangers and people who have wronged them.	Takes action when people need help or have been treated unfairly, including strangers and people who have wronged them.

2. Name someone you would consider an outstanding Jesus follower. Why do you think so?
3. Just based on the above definitions, where would you put yourself on this scale?

Christian [-----|-----] Jesus Follower

4. Read Luke 6:32-36. What stands out to you?
5. When it comes to being more proactive as a Jesus follower, what's next for you? Who can you move toward, and what specific step can you take?

Changing Your Mind

The men and women who make a difference in the world are not the ones who believe what's right. They are the men and women who act and react when something isn't right—even when it costs them.
