

JESUS INVESTIGATING

HOW WE KNOW.
WHY WE FOLLOW.

Somebody Had To Tell It

Christians are not expected to believe based solely on a collection of ancient manuscripts. The foundation of our faith is anchored to something far more substantial and sustainable.

Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever felt compelled to document the life of someone you know or knew personally? If so, why? If not, why not?
2. If you had to document the life of someone you know, who would it be and why? If you weren't allowed to use any technology other than writing, how would you convince people that your stories about that person were true?
3. As it relates to faith, have you ever experienced a season of doubt? If so, what exactly did you doubt and why?
4. Read Luke 1:1–4. What stands out to you regarding how Luke began this book?
5. What's your initial response to the suggestion that the Christian faith rises or falls on the reliability of the Gospels rather than the reliability of the entire Bible?
