

LEADING THROUGH LEADING

THREE ESSENTIALS FOR NAVIGATING UNCERTAINTY

Part 4: Humanity

During times of uncertainty and disruption, the people around us need to know we care. We often need to step out of our comfort zone to comfort someone.

Discussion Questions

1. Who needs to see more of your humanity in this season?
2. Are you ever tempted to use fairness as an excuse not to engage? Or are you tempted to hide behind the thought, “Since I can't do it for everyone, I shouldn't do it for anyone?” Where did that way of thinking originate?
3. Read John 10:11–13. What stands out to you?
4. Have you ever been pastored or shepherded by someone through a difficult season? What did they do or say that made a difference?

Moving Forward

Words are important, but sometimes they aren't enough. Lead with your humanity—your presence, compassion, and empathy.
