Back to You

Repairing a relationship requires someone to initiate, regardless of who's to blame for the fallout. There's a simple prayer you can learn to help you take that first step.

Discussion Questions

1. Which of the four C's did your parents reach for first? Convince? Convict? Coerce? Control?
2. What's your initial reaction to the notion that reconciliation begins with us, regardless of who initiated the fuss? Is your response to a strained relationship usually "I will get back at" or "I will get back to"?
3. Read Romans 12:10. What key words stand out to you? Who could you show more honor to and in what way?
4. Read Romans 12:14–17. What key words stand out to you? What comes to mind in that passage as something you need to pay attention to?
5. If you had to fill in the blank, whose name would you write?
"Heavenly Father, help me see _____ the way you do. Help me feel toward _____ what you feel."
