

My Five Wishes For You

Sandra Stanley shares five wishes she has for all of us.

To Discuss

Sandra's wishes for people:

- to have authentic faith • Would you classify your faith as authentic? Genuine? Would you say you have a close walk with God? If not, how could you take a step toward that direction?
  - to develop discernment • Lord, give me the wisdom to see trouble coming and the courage to do something about it . . . no matter what people think. If you pray that sincerely, what likely would be the first thing in your life to change?
  - to pursue humility • Read Mark 10:35. What stands out to you about how Jesus modeled humility?
  - to live generously • The "consumption assumption" is making the assumption that the extra we have is for our own consumption. Here's a reminder: We miss money we wasted or mishandled, but we never miss money we used to meet the needs of someone else.
  - to get help with anything holding you back • Whatever you have to do in order to deal with the stuff you're carrying, you must do it. What are you carrying? What type of help do you need, and will you get it?
1. Are there any on the wish list where you feel you've made progress? Talk about your "before" and "after" when it comes to that topic. What changed? How?
  2. As you look at the list, which one stands out as the main one you wish for yourself. What makes you say that?
