

The Inescapable Ought

There are times we know we ought to do something, even when there is no written rule. That's because there is an “ought to” that stands outside of you and over you that didn't originate with you.

Discussion Questions

1. Can you think of a person who has done the right thing and paid a price as a result?
2. Have you ever done the right thing because it was the right thing and paid a price? Was it worth it?
3. Have you suffered personally because of someone else's lack of integrity?
4. Read Romans 2:14–15. What stands out to you? What are some laws written on everyone's heart? What are some laws that aren't necessarily written on people's hearts?
5. Would you commit Proverbs 11:3 to memory?

The integrity of the upright guides them, but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity. (Proverbs 11:3)
