

ON PURPOSE

Week 1: Make A Plan

We all have hopes and dreams of what we want to accomplish. One of those hopes we collectively have is to live a life of purpose. However, we will not live a life of purpose by accident. It's only going to happen if we live with a plan.

Discussion Questions

1. What are some hopes and dreams you have for your life?
2. Why can it be tough for us to turn our hopes into reality?
3. Rahul said the current of life won't help you accomplish what you hope for. Where is the current of life taking you right now?
4. Read Ephesians 5:15–17.
 - According to Paul, what's the difference between the fool and the wise?
 - How does having a plan help you make the most of every opportunity?
 - How can we determine what the Lord's will is for our lives?
5. What part of the plan to live on purpose for a purpose is the hardest for you (give, serve, or love)? Why?

Moving Forward

Making a difference in this world won't happen by accident. Deciding to make a plan to live on purpose will ensure that you are living life with a purpose. Don't wait. Make a plan today to give, serve, and love.
