

Week 2: What Can I Do?

Changing the world seems so big, so overwhelming. But what if it's easier than you think? What if it's simpler than you ever imagined? What if a shift in perspective can change everything?

Discussion Questions

1. What's something you have done "for the sake of others" that may have been considered outrageous, unconventional, or even a little silly?
2. What gets in the way of us serving others?
3. Read Matthew 20:29–34. What stands out to you about how Jesus sees others? How does the conversation in Matthew 20:26–28 affect your perspective?
4. How is loving like Jesus connected to serving like Jesus? What do you think it means to serve like Jesus?
5. Why is it important for followers of Jesus to love with action? How could this impact our community?
6. Think of a person, a group, or an organization in your day-to-day life that may need some help. Make it personal... What can you do?

Changing Your Mind

If we want to be world changers, we need a shift in perspective. We need to see those around us. It will also require something of us—compassion coupled with action. It's up to us. This is what it takes. This is how we can change the world.
