

Struggle Bus

Part 2: Comparison Kills

Comparison gets you an assigned seat on the Struggle Bus. And comparison kills our identity. Don't allow it to make you lose sight of God's promises, power, and provision.

Discussion Questions

1. Comparison kills character, confidence, contentment, clarity, and courage. Which one do you feel most when struggling with comparison?
2. Looking back, when was a time when you saw God's promise in your life? How does that encourage you as you look toward the future?
3. How does it feel to applaud others? What's one way you can intentionally do that this week?
