Giving Thanks

When the local church loves the community, things change. Basic needs get met, people take next steps in their faith, and those with power leverage their influence for the sake of others. For all you do as part of this local church, thank you.

Discussion Questions

1. When is the last time someone thanked you for something you did or said? What was it for?
2. Read Ephesians 1:15–19, where the apostle Paul is expressing gratitude to Christians in Ephesus. What stands out to you?
3. If you volunteer or give to this church, would you say you feel appreciated? Why or why not?
4. When it comes to being grateful for your church, what are the first three things that come to mind?
5. Whether you're in a small group, give financially, or serve in some capacity (or maybe all of those), what's been the most rewarding part of being part of this church?
